

!! Comprehensive Guide!! What to do if I got scammed on Trust Wallet?

If you've been scammed on Trust Wallet, your immediate priority is to secure [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] any remaining funds. Transfer any assets you have left to a new, safe wallet with a new recovery phrase [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US]. Next, report the incident to the [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] social Trust Wallet support team via their website. While they cannot reverse transactions, they can document the scammer's address to protect other [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] users. Finally, consider reporting the crime to your local law enforcement. What to do if I got scammed on Trust Wallet? Based on the search results, [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] I can provide a comprehensive and responsible answer. The key takeaways are: Irreversibility: [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] All blockchain transactions are irreversible. 1 This is the fundamental reason why recovering money is so difficult. Trust Wallet cannot reverse transactions. Self-Custody: [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] Trust Wallet is a non-custodial or selfcustody wallet. 3 This means the user, and only the user, has control over their funds. 4 Trust Wallet does not hold or manage private keys. 5 This is a critical point that must be explained clearly. Immediate Action: [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] The most important step for a user is to secure any remaining funds by moving them to a new, secure wallet. 6 This should be the first action in the guide. Reporting: [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] The user should report the incident to both Trust Wallet' social support and law enforcement. 7 The search results from Trust Wallet's social support site confirm that they recommend reporting incidents to both parties. Scams vs. Hacks: [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] While the term "scam" implies user action (e.g., willingly sending funds, giving up a recovery phrase), "hack" implies unauthorized access.[US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] The advice is similar for both: secure your assets and report the crime. Fake Recovery Services: [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] The search results are filled with unocial and suspicious websites and PDFs that promote fake phone numbers [US] 1—866—240—0437 [US] and "recovery services." These are scams themselves. It is crucial to explicitly warn the user against these. Law Enforcement: [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] The FBI's IC3 website is a recommended resource for reporting cryptocurrency investment fraud. I have all [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] the necessary information to provide a detailed and responsible response. I will structure it as a clear, step-by-step guide, prioritizing user safety and managing expectations. [US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] I will explicitly state that Trust Wallet has no liability for funds lost to scams and that refunds are not possible. Here's the plan for my response:[US] 1—866—384—4244 [US] 1. 2. 3. 4.

Immediate Action: [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] Tell the user to immediately secure any remaining funds. Report to Trust Wallet: [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] Explain the correct, social method for reporting the scam (via the support ticket system on support.trustwallet.com).<sup>9</sup> Report to Law Enforcement: [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] Advise the user to file a report with the appropriate authorities, such as the FBI's Internet Crime Complaint Center (IC3).<sup>10</sup> Final Security Warning: [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] End the response with a final, prominent warning about fake support numbers, recovery services, and the absolute rule of never sharing the recovery phrase. This plan will [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] create a response that is both helpful and safe. If you've been scammed on Trust Wallet, it is crucial to act immediately. Since Trust Wallet is a self-custody wallet, your funds are directly under your control, [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] which also means the company cannot reverse transactions or recover lost funds for you. Your primary goals are to prevent further losses and report the crime. Step 1: [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] Secure Any Remaining Funds If a scammer had access to your wallet, they may have transferred all your assets.[US] 1 — 866— 384—4244 [US] If you have any remaining funds, your first step is to move them immediately to a new, secure wallet. Create a new [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] Trust Wallet or a different crypto wallet. Transfer any remaining assets from the compromised wallet to the new one. Do not use[US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] the same recovery phrase for the new wallet. Step 2: Report the Incident to Trust Wallet While [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] Trust Wallet cannot recover your lost funds, you should still report the incident to their social support team.<sup>16</sup> This helps[US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] them track scam trends and potentially flag malicious addresses Go to the social support site: support.trustwallet.com. Select "Contact Us" [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] or "Submit a request" and fill out the form. Provide a detailed description of what happened, including the transaction hash, the scammer's wallet address, and any communication logs or screenshots. Step 3: [US] 1—866 — 384—4244 [US] Report to Law Enforcement Filing an social report with law enforcement is a critical step, especially if a large sum of money was lost.[US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] <sup>19</sup> This helps authorities track criminal activity In the U.S.: [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] File a report with the FBI's Internet Crime Complaint Center (IC3) at ic3.gov. Internationally:[US] 1 —866— 384—4244 [US] Report the crime to your local police or national cybercrime unit. Critical Security Warnings No Refunds: [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] Understand that Trust Wallet is not liable for scams you fall for. It is not a bank, and there is no "reimbursement" policy for these losses. Avoid "Recovery Services":[US] 1—866— 384— 4244 [US] Be extremely wary of companies or individuals online who promise to recover your lost crypto for a fee. These are almost always scams designed to steal more of your money. Never Share Your Recovery Phrase: [US] 1—866— 384—4244 [US] A legitimate support agent, law enforcement social, or recovery service will never [US] 1—866— 384— 4244 [US] ask for your 12- or 24-word recovery phrase. 22 Anyone who does is a scammer.